

Vani Dave Mataitoga
Birthplace: Republic of Fiji

We would like to introduce "Vani" who came to Japan with Ms. Roneta who was introduced in the first work report, and returned to Fiji in March 2022 due to marriage!!

Why did you choose to come to Japan?

I was interested in two countries, Japan and Israel and I have found the article of Narita Airport Business recruitment so that I have decided to come and work in Japan.

How was your life in Japan?

I had a large family and depended on my parents and other family members in Fiji, but I was able to learn a lot of things and become independent after experiencing living alone in Japan.

How did you spend your salary?

At first, I used it to pay off my scholarship and family debt, I was able to finish it and sent money to my family in Fiji before returning to Japan. I am very satisfied because I can receive such a salary in Japan.

A message for foreign people who want to come to Japan.

Here are some words from a famous actor.
'Strength does not come from its own meaning, but hardship fosters your strength.'
Strength is born when you overcome hardship and decide not to surrender.
So you must try to find that strength. For there comes a time when hardship pays off."
These are the words.
One of the hardest things to do in a foreign country is to study. That is where I started, and we worked hard, helping each other. If you are interested in Japan, please come to Japan, even though you may face difficulties.

Your job description

I was in charge of reception in the lounge and showing customers how to use the carts.

Office atmosphere

My job required a lot of Japanese, my boss and co-workers were very kind and supportive.

I felt that they care about me a lot. Everyone was very kind and gentle, and whenever I had a question, they would always say "Of course", "Ask me!" and kindly help me out. Also, every time I came to work, they would say hi to me, so going to the office was one of the things that I looked forward to.

Difficulties experienced in Japan

I was afraid of language barrier all the time, and spoke with Japanese people was a major challenge I faced on a daily basis. That said, I feel very blessed to be able to learn a lot from this experience.

Through my work in Japan, I have learned to humble myself in order to respect others and their opinions and actions.

When serving customers, I have to be humble because they have different behaviors and attitudes.

I felt that it is important to have the qualities of humility and respect for others, rather than just being humble.
